Overall Trends this week

The Government extended Ontario’s state of emergency until September 22.

MCCSS have provided an updated document for reopening of congregate living settings that encompasses visitors, short stay absences, outings and essential overnight absences.

This document acknowledges the rights of people to enjoy participation in the life in the community, while mitigating risks of doing so. CLOC has updated the guidelines document, which went out on 3rd of September, and reissued on the 8th.

This document describes that Each group living location, or person, must have an individualized Enhanced Precaution Plans for Location Visits, Short Stay Absences and Outings, and Essential Absences, that assesses and considers the persons’ support and safety needs and safety concerns. All visits must adhere to the Ministry of Community Children and Social Services (MCCSS) Visitor’s Guidelines 2.0: Re-Opening of Congregate Living Settings, as well as health directives and CLOC’s infection control procedures to ensure that people are safe, and ensure risks are mitigated, and reduce the threat of exposure to COVID-19.
