

VOLUNTEER BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Community Living Oshawa/Clarington (CLOC) is a non-profit organization dedicated to supporting the achievement of personal outcomes for people with developmental disabilities. CLOC has been providing services in Durham Region for nearly 70 years, and we are currently looking for volunteers to join our Board of Directors.

Our Board of Directors follows a policy governance model that allows us to fulfill our obligation of accountability to people with developmental disabilities, and their families, in our community. As the organization continues to grow and evolve, we find ourselves once again, looking for new Board and Board committee members with knowledge and skills aligned to the high standard of supports and services we provide.

Individuals with experience in one or more of the following areas will be considered an asset:

- Advocacy
- Culture and Diversity
- Non-profit organizations
- Health
- Finance
- Information Technology (IT)
- Law and/or community policing
- Real Estate
- Social Services

Interested candidates are invited to visit our website at www.communitylivingoc.ca, under 'Get Involved', for additional information on becoming a Community Living Oshawa/Clarington volunteer Board and Board committee member, as well as an application and/or nomination form.

If you would like additional information about this opportunity, please contact Wendy Shaw; wshaw@communitylivingoc.ca , or by phone at 905-576-3011 ext. 330.
